

Weekly Caption

An Upper School student replicating a painting of a pair of shoes by Vincent van Gogh for the Painting with the Masters Art Unit.

Lower School students learning to stretch before a physical activity.

Mrs. Collins and the Upper School students testing the physical and chemical properties of substances in Science Class.

An Upper School student building a model of a lead molecule in Chemistry Class.

Mrs. Domb discussing etiquette at the symphony for the Lower School field trip to the Toronto Symphony Orchestra.

Upper School students presenting their Writer's Craft assignment about poets and writers.

Lower School students learning measurement in Math Class.

Lower School students learning about circuits during Scientist in the School.